Letters

Lucky you!

Hi, just a quick note to say thanks. I was surprised to get a package a couple of weeks ago from Tribute saying I was a second place winner of a "Do as I say" online contest. The Body Shop items are appreciated.

Elinor Schwob
Via email

Thanks for entering and congratulations on winning. Be sure to check tribute.ca and enter as many contests as you like. You'll also find amazing interviews in Star Chats, and of course, Movie Showtimes and reviews.

A fan of the Braff

I've been looking forward to catching Zach Braff's new movie, The Ex, but the release dates seem to keep changing. When can we expect to see it in theaters?

Stacy Martin
Via email

The Ex, will be in theaters on May 11. The release dates were pushed back because producers couldn't settle on a title for the movie. Check tribute.ca for updates on release dates for all upcoming films.

Awesome doc

Thank you for the article on Sharkwater. I saw the movie with my fiancée and thought it was absolutely brilliant. Kudos to Rob Stewart for taking a big risk to spread the word about a vicious practice.

Vincent S.
Via email

For more info on Sharkwater visit www.sharkwater.com, where you can also make a pledge to help save sharks. Thousands of people have already said that saving sharks from shark finning and extinction is something they are very concerned about.

Blades of Glory

Lakeshore Records

After being banned from figure skating for life after a fight, rival skaters Chazz Michael Michaels (Will Ferrell) and Jimmy MacElroy (Jon Heder) find a loophole that will allow them to compete: as a pairs' figure skating team. The soundtrack features rock anthems like Billy Squire's "The Stroke," "Hotblooded" by Foreigner and "Rock You Like a Hurricane" by The Scorpions. Throw in a song from American Idol's Bo Bice ("Blades of Glory"), and exclusive dialog from the film, and you've got a soundtrack that is as entertaining as the movie itself.

Diddy faces lawsuit

Sean 'P Diddy' Combs is being sued by a man who claims the music mogul assaulted him at a post-Oscar party. The suit claims Combs punched the man in the jaw after making rude remarks at him and then proceeded to push his girlfriend and attempted to spit on another female who was with the couple. The lawsuit is seeking unspecified compensatory and punitive damages.

Cameron rebounds

Cameron Diaz has reportedly moved on to model/singer/actor Tyrese Gibson. The two were spotted making out on the dancefloor at the trendy Xenii nightclub in L.A. The pair were also seen together at a pre-Oscar party. Since her breakup with Justin Timberlake, the Charlie's Angels star has been linked to surfer Kelly Slater and Blood Diamond's Djimon Hounsou.

Maggie flies into big budget flick

Secretary star Maggie Gyllenhaal is in final talks to replace Katie Holmes in the Batman Begins sequel. The new mom became an instant favorite to take on the Rachel Dawes character in The Dark Knight after Holmes quit the role shortly after becoming Mrs. Tom Cruise. Director Christopher Nolan tells The Hollywood Reporter, "I'm extremely excited to work with an actress of Maggie's caliber, and she's a great addition to the cast."

Not ready to depart

Oscar winning director Martin Scorsese and Mark Wahlberg are set to team up again, but this time for the small screen. The pair will work together as executive producers on an HBO drama based on a book about the development of Atlantic City. Wahlberg is not only gaining accolades for his acting career, but is also gaining high producing cred for his HBO hit series Entourage, loosely based on his early career.

Paris brags about performance

When Paris Hilton's sex tape, One Night in Paris, was leaked to the public by Rick Salomon the heiress made it clear she was humiliated and angry, but apparently it was all an act. A source says they heard Hilton and Salomon bragging about how they each made $1 million from the video at a post-Oscar party. Hilton's rep confirmed the two talked but denies they spoke about the video.

Reese's pieces

Lindsay Lohan has found herself a new piece of man candy. The 20-year-old actress recently met with Reese Witherspoon's ex-husband Ryan Phillippe at a Hollywood party and reportedly became completely infatuated with him. Apparently, since the two met, Lohan cannot stop talking about the Breach star. She's also asked mutual friends to tell him she's interested and has allegedly been leaving nonstop phone messages. A source reveals that Phillippe has not returned one call.

Angelina escapes kidnapping!

Angelina Jolie has revealed that she escaped being kidnapped. The actress, who has traveled to several foreign countries, revealed to the News of the World that she was almost kidnapped in a country she refuses to name. The 31-year-old UN Goodwill Ambassador said: "It was in a small village. I won't say where, or with whom, but some gangsters planned to kidnap me and extort a massive ransom. I was warned at the last minute, and managed to escape, luckily." Angelina's partner Brad Pitt has expressed his concern for their safety, and the safety of their children, 5-year-old Maddox, 2-year-old Zahara, and 9-month-old baby Shiloh. Apparently, this won't stop the UN Ambassador from traveling to underprivileged countries to fulfill her duties. Jolie and Pitt recently welcomed their newly adopted 3-year-old son, Pax, from Vietnam, to their family.

Sexy and Single

A self-proclaimed jeans and T-shirt gal, Drew Barrymore embraced her inner goddess in this flowing gown at the premiere of Music and Lyrics. Barrymore, who ended a four-year relationship with The Strokes drummer Fabrizio Moretti, appears to be taking a page from Reese Witherspoon's book on how to look fabulous after a split.

Kylie Minogue was said to be heart-broken over her split with French actor Olivier Martinez earlier this year but the singer was stylish as ever during Fashion week in Paris.

Orlando Bloom looks more handsome than ever after finally lopping off his Pirates-inspired locks. Bloom, who split with Superman star Kate Bosworth late last year, was quietly dating Penélope Cruz.

Cameron Diaz was gorgeous to begin with but the actress looked great at this year's Oscars with a shorter hairstyle and a natural tan thanks to a Hawaiian vacation she took a few weeks after long-time love Justin Timberlake ended their relationship. Not that Diaz went alone. The Holiday star took to the beach with pal (and rumored fling), pro surfer Kelly Slater.

Reese Witherspoon rocked the red carpet during the awards season with a sleek, sexy makeover. Sporting bangs, a blonder mane of hair and a slimmer figure (the actress is said to be exercising like mad post-breakup), the Oscar winner credits a new stylist for helping her shed the matronly look she favored while married to Ryan Phillippe.

Joel who? Hilary Duff has tweaked her look even further since she and Good Charlotte singer Joel Madden called it quits. The singer/actress showed off her darker hair and an edgier style during a visit to MTV's TRL in New York City.

profile

If being named the “Sexiest Woman in the World” in 2006 by FHM magazine and posing nude on the coveted Vanity Fair cover doesn't attest to how hot an actress really is, it's hard to imagine what else does. But when you're a young, aspiring actress, one can only dream of making A-list status. And if you've achieved such a feat by age 21, you know you've become one of the most in-demand celebrities on the planet.

For Scarlett Johansson, the transition from child actor to Golden Globe nominee has appeared effortless.

Johansson's first big break came in 1998's The Horse Whisperer, starring as Kristin Scott Thomas' troubled daughter. Top casting agents immediately noticed her talent but it was the Sofia Coppola-directed film Lost

Photos: Keystone/Canada

Scarlett Hollywood's hottest star in demand

in Translation that made Johansson, at 19, a bonafide star.

“It's very hard to be extra witty around a sexually overwhelming, beautiful young woman who is wittier than you are. Anytime I say anything amusing, Scarlett tops me,” director Woody Allen has said of Johansson, who has starred in two of his films, Scoop and Match Point.

Johansson is re-teaming with Allen for a third project, still untitled, to be filmed in Spain this summer, along with Javier Bardem and Penélope Cruz.

Her success has also given Johansson the opportunity to appear in ad campaigns and become a clothing designer. Currently, she's the face of Louis Vuitton and L'Oréal, and has a line of sportswear clothing with Reebok called Scarlett Hearts Rbk.

Don't be surprised to hear Johansson adding film director to her credit. She says: “I definitely want to make a big epic film, not necessarily Gladiator, but a larger-than-life subject... I want to make all kinds of movies, I'm totally ambitious.”

Fracture APRIL 20

Ryan Gosling, Anthony Hopkins, David Strathairn

When meticulous engineer Ted Crawford (Hopkins) is found innocent of the attempted murder of his wife, Willy Beachum (Gosling), the young district attorney prosecuting him, becomes a crusader for justice. Entering into a dangerous game of cat and mouse, Beachum's fierce drive to finish the job may bring him more problems than he can handle. In a tense duel of intellect and strategy, Crawford and Beachum both learn that a "fracture" can be found in every seemingly perfect façade.

Vacancy APRIL 20

Luke Wilson, Kate Beckinsale, Frank Whaley, Ethan Embry

When David (Wilson) and Amy Fox's (Beckinsale) car breaks down in the middle of nowhere, they are forced to spend the night at the only motel around. While watching TV, they discover the low budget slasher movies on the screen were all filmed in the very room they're sitting in. With hidden cameras recording their every move, the couple must move quickly to get out alive before they become the filmmaker's latest victims.

In The Land of Women APRIL 20

Adam Brody, Olympia Dukakis, Meg Ryan, Kristin Stewart

Carter Webb (Brody) has just been dumped. Heartbroken, Carter escapes Los Angeles to suburban Michigan to care for his ailing grandmother (Dukakis) and to work on a book he has always wanted to write. When he arrives, he meets the neighbors, Sarah Hardwicke (Ryan) and her two daughters. His relationships with these women help Carter discover that what felt like an end was only just the beginning of something else.

The last web crawl?

Tobey Maguire, Kirsten Dunst and villains return for another helping of Spider-Man

W

WHEN we last left Peter Parker in Spider-Man 2 his secret was out. Now, finally managing to strike a balance between his love life with M.J. (Kirsten Dunst) and his duties as a superhero, a new crop of challenges arises for the webslinger, and they are fierce.

Still reeling from the death of his Uncle Ben, Peter finds out that escaped prisoner, Flint Marko is his uncle's real killer. Upon his breakout, Marko is involved in a mishap, turning him into the elusive Sandman. As Spider-Man, Peter will do what he must to avenge his uncle's death, but before he does, a mysterious, oil-like substance has changed his suit to black, and unknowingly begins to change Spidey over to the dark, vengeful side of his personality that he struggles to control.

Joining Tobey Maguire and Kirsten Dunst in the much-anticipated third installment is Thomas Haden Church as Sandman, Bryce Dallas Howard as Gwen Stacy and Topher Grace as Eddie Brock and his alter ego, Venom. James Franco returns as Harry Osborn and takes up form as the new Green Goblin to finally seek revenge for his father's death—and word has it his new glider is super sleek and state-of-the art.

Director Sam Raimi (who returns to helm Spider-Man 3), Tobey Maguire and Kirsten Dunst talk about the film, revealing the challenges they faced, their emotionally-changed characters and how this just may be the best Spidey movie ever.

The big surprise in this installment is the introduction of a new villain. How do you feel about introducing Venom?

Raimi: There are so many fans of Spider-Man that want to see Venom. Now that I have seen Topher Grace perform as him and saw what Alvin Sargent did with the script, he created a great character. He really filled out Eddie Brock into a very meaningful character and Tobey has a great energy with him in the few scenes that they play together as competitors.

Story wise, how do you make Venom realistic in a Spider-Man world?

Raimi: There is a lot of fantastic elements about Venom that you could say are in conflict with the realism that we wanted to have in the picture. We just said to ourselves “Kirsten and Tobey Suits him fine.

Dunst and Maguire share a moment.

you will have to do the real heavy lifting here to bring it back down to earth because he is this wild goof from outer space so you are just going to have to connect us to the characters.”

“I think it’s a little sleeker and sexier... more like me in real life!”

Tobey Maguire on the new black Spidey suit.

So Venom is from outer space then?

Raimi: I never said that! I don’t know what you are talking about. [Laughs]

Tobey, talk about the new black costume. Is it a lot different for you?

Maguire: Not really. Pretty much the same, I mean yeah, the material is similar. I think it is probably a little sleeker and sexier but kind of more like me in real life! [Laughs]

Tobey, Kristen, how have your characters evolved?

Dunst: For Mary Jane, basically, she is still an actress. You could see in the last film that emotionally things with Peter were getting much more adult and mature. There is a lot more at stake for all of the characters and I think that we have focused on their relationships because they are older and have just developed more and things have become more complicated. Emotionally it is a much heavier film for me.

Maguire: For me, there’s obviously a continuity of character that you have to keep up. Peter Parker is Peter Parker so it is important to not just try to create new things for Peter just for the sake of it, but I don’t necessarily want to see the same scenes played out and Peter going through the same kind of things that he has gone through. I think the people who have input into Peter’s story and what Peter is going through in this movie, did a fantastic job. As an actor there is nothing stale about it. I got to approach it and got to do brand new and interesting things for myself. In terms of what the specifics of that are, you will see when you check out the movie.

Actors

Tobey Maguire, Kirsten Dunst, James Franco, Topher Grace, Thomas Haden Church, Bryce Dallas Howard

Director

Sam Raimi

Locations

New York, Los Angeles, Chicago, Cleveland

Outtake

The over 600 latex “web” balloons in the celebration scene had to be hand-painted with a sharpie marker.

Franco and Dunst

Kirsten and Tobey, how did it feel to be turned into action figures?

Dunst: It doesn't really look like me, so I don't have a weird connection like "Oh whoa, that looks so much like me." It's nice for girls who want to buy a Mary Jane doll but I don't really feel any connection.

Maguire: I guess it's a little surreal but I haven't actually gone to the store and seen them on the shelves or anything so I think that might be an interesting experience.

Raimi: I am still waiting for my action figure by the way.

“Emotionally it is a much heavier film for me.” Kirsten Dunst

Tobey, can you talk about some of the physical stuff in the movie? Did anything push you to the limits?

Maguire: Yeah, my back is fine thanks! I enjoy doing this stuff and I do the stuff that I can do and that is safe. It's an interesting part of the job. When I watch the stuntmen do the really, really crazy stuff it blows my mind and I say "I can't believe they do that." It's really amazing and me saying this is a little ill advised because most actors, I don't understand how they say this but, some actors come in and say "I do all my own stunts." By the way I just want to tell you guys, any actor that says they do all their stunts is not telling you the truth! Unless they are like, jumping over a little gate or something.

Sam, Gwen Stacy's character is famous for being killed. Do you plan on killing her or Mary Jane?

Raimi: I wouldn't dream of it!

Dunst: Thanks, Sam.

Raimi: The villains may have something else in mind, though.

Is this the completion of the Spider-Man story?

Dunst: Well, there is definitely a culmination, but you would have had to have seen the first and the second movies. If there are more stories to tell, if things are unresolved then we will tell them. It depends I think on if everyone is game and if there is a story to tell. If there is a good story I will be there.

Anything you can say for Aunt May? Is there any change for her because she has been thrashed around so many times?

Raimi: What do you think Tobey?

Maguire: I don't know. [Someone] told me that Sam likes to torture his actors and I thought...

Raimi: We are out of time. [Laughs] ■

Eric Bana and Drew Barrymore risk it all in Lucky You

Winning Hand

EVER since Ben Affleck took top prize at the 2004 California State Poker Championship, Hollywood and poker have become inexorably linked. Tobey Maguire joined the elite rank of top players alongside Affleck later that same year when he won first place at the Phil Hellmuth Invitational Poker Tournament.

Actor James Woods is also a regular poker player who not only shows amazing skill, but is the face of a website that gives people the chance to play celebrities online. Affleck's good friend Matt Damon also plays poker at a professional level.

It was inevitable that the world of high-stakes poker would come to the big screen. Though there are several films in the works, the first poker-based movie to hit theaters this year is Lucky You, directed by Curtis Hanson, who who have had long and colorful—but mostly anonymous—careers... become celebrities."

In Lucky You, Eric Bana (Munich) plays Huck Cheever—a player who goes all out, all the time, to the detriment of his personal relationships including the one with his father (Robert Duvall), a poker legend that abandoned his family years ago. That is, until he meets lounge singer Billie Offer (Barrymore), who just arrived in Las Vegas with dreams of stardom.

Barrymore took vocal lessons for the role and was so terrified she forced director Hanson to give her shots of Southern Comfort before shooting the singing scene. "I fundamentally have the worst voice ever given to a human being!" admits Barrymore. "No one was like, 'Wow', but I was just happy no one had blood spurting out of their ears!"

Hanson explains: "I'd always wanted to make a relationship movie set in the world of poker because I've always found it fascinating that the same skill set that serves you well at the poker table is almost the opposite skill set you need in order to have successful relationships. Poker is a totally individualistic sport. It's every man for himself, whereas relationships are about teamwork—putting the other person first, self-sacrifice."

Professional poker player Jason Lester, who's won over $1 million playing poker in live tournaments and is one of several well-known players who appear in the movie, endorses Lucky You as a film that portrays gambling as it really is. "I can't recall any movie ever really showing high stakes gambling in such an authentic manner. Having real poker players makes it more realistic and that's so important for any kind of gambling movie." ■

FORGET about the miniskirt, this season's "must have" is the mini dress. Modern, flirty and oh-so-feminine, there is a variety of styles to choose from, such as the A-line, empire waist, baby-doll or bubble shape. This year, the A-line is super cute as the mod style of the 1960s becomes popular.

—Toni-Marie Ippolito

Tip:

This season, if this leg-baring style seems daunting, try wearing it with slim pants or leggings.

Canadian star Rachel McAdams bared all on the red carpet at this year's Screen Actor's Guild Awards. McAdams will star next in Married Life, a 1940s-set drama where an adulterous man plots his wife's death instead of putting her through the humiliation of a divorce.

THERE was a time when documentaries were largely ignored by theater audiences who preferred standard “entertainment” fare. Those days are long gone, as moviegoers’ appetite for non-fiction films, especially those featuring conservation and animals, is at an all time high.

In fact, Rob Stewart’s critically-acclaimed, award-winning film Sharkwater, made history March 23rd with the largest opening weekend of any Canadian documentary—beating the opening box office of Bowling for Columbine, March of the Penguins and An Inconvenient Truth.

Docs are hot

Rob Stewart

Sharkwater has won 11 awards to date including People’s Choice and Best Documentary awards at top festivals around the world, as well as being named one of Canada’s Top Ten by the Toronto International Film Festival. Sharkwater is now the most talked about and award-winning documentary of the year.

“People are aware of most of the environmental issues today, except what’s going on in the oceans, that’s why this film is important,” said Stewart. “Sharkwater brings audiences closer to sharks than ever before, so people can finally understand sharks, and free themselves from that fear.”

Aries (MAR. 21 – APR. 20)

More than one opportunity for a new start comes your way. Flag the 8th to the 12th as your window of maximum opportunity. Meanwhile, a romantic co-star demands retakes around the 23rd, setting the scene for make-or-break scenarios. Things improve once a financial weight is removed. Romance breezes turn balmy then, but you'd be wise to keep your head out of the clouds.

Taurus (APR. 21 – MAY 21)

Expect some interesting new plot lines to be added this month. People around you find your inspirations divine around the 11th. Bonus: your self-confidence also gets a nice boost. Your money matters late in the month, a lot. Meet all deadlines and close all loopholes around 25th. Then look around for new opportunities. Entertaining around home base exactly suits your mood and style around the 28th.

Gemini (MAY 22 – JUNE 21)

This month attend all social gatherings to expand your outlook and learn new ways of doing things. Around the 19th productivity and cooperation are hard to come by, so don't bother. A chance meeting around the 28th brings you face-to-face with someone new, and almost too good to be true your way. This could lead to a big-screen-worthy romance if you follow up.

Cancer (JUNE 22 – JULY 22)

Your sense of humor is tested early in the month. The likely culprit: some fool from your past. Keep this person at bay and focus on your special talents. Wait until after the 19th, though, to make a play for the director's chair. In fact, most important moves are best made after that time. You're dreamy and giddy with spring late in the month. Your starry-eyed dreams help provide creative solutions.

Leo (JULY 23 – AUG. 23)

Romance grabs the spotlight most of the month. If casting a new co-star, improvised lines work best. Your charisma hits record highs, but best dim your brilliance at work. Otherwise, you may incur some unwelcome jealousy.

Nettlesome delays in communications accelerate from the 23rd on. You can make your point, but must work hard to be clear. A big break on the 28th or the 29th could prove life changing.

Virgo (AUG. 24 – SEPT. 23)

A new perk at work or a nice tax refund? You'll never know unless you ask! There's no time like the present to claim what's yours. But do wait until the 8 or the 9th. You take a fresh look at your career direction front from the 16th. Armed with clearer vision, you can then make a key decision. Late in the month it's the state of your union that claims your attention. Your quiet charm works wonders in any negotiation around the 24th.

Libra (SEPT. 24 – OCT. 23)

You'll see progress at last in a key relationship, or a new romance may bloom. Go ahead, and speak your heart. Until the 19th the reception will be warm and encouraging. Around the 21st excellent trends prevail for a getaway, à deux, of course. It's your best time for travel, or just escaping into a few really good flicks. From the 24th on, resist all risky investments, however tempting.

Scorpio (OCT. 24 – NOV. 22)

A nose-to-the-grindstone approach works best if even though you'd much rather flirt around the water cooler, don't. By the 7th, a more balanced trend means you can have more fun in both love and life. Just plain luck is on your side, a fact that's tangibly demonstrated around the 16th. Expect a happy surprise or two. Got the home improvement bug? Best storm ahead with a renovation or decorating project around the 24th.

Sagittarius (NOV. 23 – DEC. 21)

Follow your urge and indulge your wanderlust. Travel and new friendships are especially favored around the 8th, the 9th, the 21st and the 26th. Before you go, patch things up with a romantic partner. Flag the 22nd for making amends. Greater commitment can be yours if you wish, but don't make promises that will prove too restricting later. Meanwhile, teamwork makes the road lie smoother, but be wary of accidents on the 30th.

Capricorn (DEC. 22 – JAN. 20)

Home is where your heart is mid-month, so why not settle in for a while? You can pretty much have it your way with your significant other. But don't try to finalize anything until after the 11th. Spruce up and get out the barbecue. As you putter, the way out of a money dilemma may come to you in a daydream on the 24th.

Aquarius (JAN. 21 – FEB. 18)

You may as well install a revolving door at home. Friends and colleagues use it as a second home base, and you're going in circles. By midmonth, you've had enough and require solo downtime. The financial picture needs fine-tuning. The 23rd looks great for getting a handle on where the money really goes. You're ready to explore the language of love at month's end. Someone new likes your way with words.

Pisces (FEB. 19 – MAR. 20)

The month kicks off on a positive note, with ample opportunities to socialize. Your creative abilities and communication skills combine nicely and someone higher up the food chain will notice by the 9th. Just watch a tendency to overstate your case then. Dreams of wealth haunt you midmonth. Build some castles in the air, but spend any real cash. After the 20th, turn your attention to home improvements.

Jessica Alba

Taurus
born April 28, 1981,
Boston, Massachusetts

Born under a sign ruled by Venus, goddess of beauty, Alba is a natural beauty. Her chart shows she's feistier and more rebellious than your average Taurean. She will appear in no fewer than five big-screen releases in the next year. She may have to watch her health this year, as she reportedly has some potentially recurring conditions. But if she can resist overextending herself, she'll continue to enjoy super-charged career success heading into 2008.

The Last King of Scotland

APRIL 17

Scottish physician Dr. Nicholas Garrigan (James McAvoy) travels to Uganda on a medical mission and meets the country's ruthless dictator Idi Amin (Forest Whitaker). Amin takes a liking to the doctor and decides to make him his personal physician and advisor. During the beginning of their relationship Garrigan ignores the crimes Amin is committing throughout the country. But when he hears there are plans to kill the health minister, he tries to break away without being crushed by the dictator's vengeful fist.

Night at the Museum

APRIL 24

Good-hearted dreamer Larry Daley (Ben Stiller) thinks he's destined for something big. But even he could never have imagined how "big," when he accepts what appears to be a menial job as a graveyard-shift night watchman at the Museum of Natural History. But during Larry's watch, the museum's exhibits magically come to life. A fearsome T-Rex insists on a game of fetch; Mayans, Roman Gladiators, and cowboys emerge from their diorama to wage epic battles; and a wax figure of Teddy Roosevelt (Robin Williams) gives Larry important advice on how to control the magic and save the museum.

"Really good, not just for kids."

Dreamgirls

MAY 1

Three talented young singers—Effie White (Jennifer Hudson), Deena Jones (Beyoncé Knowles) and Lorrell Robinson (Anika Noni Rose)—enter a talent competition where they meet Curtis Taylor Jr. (Jamie Foxx), an ambitious manager. He offers them the chance of a lifetime when he asks them to perform as back-up singers for James "Thunder" Early (Eddie Murphy). Taylor takes control of the group and launches them into their own spotlight as The Dreams, but their newfound fortune may cost more than they bargained for.

THERE was a time when the news of a celebrity entering rehab would have been kept hush-hush by their publicist. These days it appears there is an announcement every other day of a star seeking treatment, practically becoming a rite of passage for young Hollywood.

The latest celeb to enter rehab is Desperate Housewives star Jesse Metcalfe who checked into an undisclosed facility to “deal with alcohol issues.” “He realized he had a problem and was anxious to deal with it immediately,” the actor’s rep stated. Ironically, the handsome actor’s next project is the thriller Loaded in which he plays a rich club kid caught up the world of drugs, sex and alcohol.

Metcalfé’s news came just days after Britney Spears completed her month-

Rehab, Hollywood style

Tara Conner

long stint at the Promises Center in Malibu. The singer checked in (twice) for undisclosed reasons after a bout of bizarre behavior including her infamous head shaving incident.

Miss USA 2006, Tara Conner, almost lost her crown after her lusty and drunken antics were reported in gossip pages. After apologizing profusely to Donald Trump (who owns the pageant), the beauty queen spent a few weeks at a treatment center in Pennsylvania. Even though her reign is over, Conner, who is pursuing a career in acting, is now more famous than any of her predecessors.

Finally, notorious party-girl and apparent rehab trendsetter, Lindsay Lohan, may be out of rehab but for how long? The actress, who completed a stay at the Wonderland Center in February for reported alcohol abuse, has been spotted in New York City partying the nights away.
